RE: Land Use and Zoning

October 17, 2023

To Whom it May Concern,

This email is to notify you that we intend to submit an application for a major alteration or addition for the property located at 7007 NE Going Street. This will entail an addition of 750 Sq Feet to enlarge bedrooms and add a bathroom.

As required by Portland City Code 24.55.210 there is a delay period of 35 days from the date of this notice before work under the permit can begin. The earliest work would begin would be 12.1.23.

This email is informational only. You do not need to take any action, and it does not confer any right to appeal issuance of the permit for the project described above. We will place door hangers on the 10 properties abutting and across the street from the site of the project.

Please contact Kevin Bacastow if you have any questions.

Thank you,
